

DRAFT Preliminary programme

20 September 2017

Registration

09 :00-10:30

10.30 -11:00

Welcome from the ICCHNR convenors & introduction to conference poet in residence Molly Case RN

TEA/COFFEE 11.00-11.15

11.20-11.45

KEYNOTE: Presenter from Ministry of Health - to be announced

11.55-13.15

BREAKOUT
SESSIONS/WORKSHOPS

Venue 1

Innovation and new trends

Venue 2

Community involvement: best practices

Venue 3

Health policy issues

Venue 4

National and international partnerships

LUNCH

13:15-14:00

14.00-15.00

BREAKOUT
SESSIONS/WORKSHOPS

Venue 1

Research for the future

Venue 2

Community nurses:
empowerment, skills
development, caring for the carers

Venue 3

Community nurses:
empowerment, skills
development, caring for the carers

Venue 4

Research for the future

TEA/COFFEE

15.00-15.20

15.25-16.05

BREAKOUT
SESSIONS/WORKSHOPS

COCKTAIL RECEPTION

16:30-18:00

21 September 2017

Registration 08 :00-09:00
Plenary 09.00-9.30		Prof Dlamini (Swaziland) She is a PhD holder in nursing and M.Cur from the University of Natal and a B.Ed. Degree obtained from the University of Botswana. Her specialities are in non-communicable diseases as well as traditional knowledge systems of care. She has conducted research and published in International and regional journals in areas of health and mainly on chronic illnesses and HIV and AIDS issues and on traditional medicinal ethno-surveys.
Plenary 9.30-10.00		Jane Salvage (UK) Programme director of the Global Nursing Policy Leadership Institute 2017, International Council of Nurses. She is well known as a nursing and health policy activist and leader. Her commitment to high quality health care, social justice and women's rights has been the main driver of her unusual career. Her best-known book, The Politics of Nursing (Heinemann 1985), was a wake-up call to the profession to get out from under. She remains passionate about helping nurses to become articulate, effective and influential in all aspects of health and social care, education, research and policy.
10.05-10.45 BREAKOUT SESSIONS/WORKSHOPS		Venue 1 Innovation and new trends	Venue 2 Community involvement: best practices	Venue 3 Health policy issues	Venue 4 National and international partnerships
COFFEE/TEA 10.45-11.00
11.05-12.25 BREAKOUT SESSIONS/WORKSHOPS
LUNCH 12.30-13.30
13.30-15.50 BREAKOUT SESSIONS/WORKSHOPS/POSTER EXHIBITION		Venue 1 Poster exhibition	Venue 2 Poster exhibition	Venue 3 Community nurses: empowerment, skills development, caring for the carers	Venue 4 National and international partnerships
Evening Restaurant conversations To be arranged

22 September 2017

Registration 08 :00-09 :00
Plenary 09.00-09.30	KEY NOTE Prof J Owino (Kenya) Dr Owino has been a nurse for 30 years in various countries, institutions and capacities including clinical practice, community health leadership, nursing research, nursing education and nursing administration. She obtained her PhD in community health and development at Great Lakes University of Kisumu, Kenya, during which time she developed a substantive theory for antenatal nursing care in rural Nyanza in Kenya, namely, Owino's theory of nurse-client interactions for child birth preparedness .
09.35-10.15 BREAKOUT SESSIONS/WORKSHOPS TEA/COFFEE 10.15-10.30	Venue 1 Innovation and new trends	Venue 2: Community involvement: best practices	Venue 3 Health policy issues	Venue 4 Research for the future
10.35-12.15 BREAKOUT SESSIONS/WORKSHOPS 12.20-12.50
Conference close including Poet in Residence Molly Case reading of her poem "Nursing the World" based on the conference
LUNCH				